

The Center of Assistance to the Development of the Vocational training and the Collaboration

27th July 2011

Dear Director Pavel Chernykh

INVITATION

WorldSkills International is a unique, not for profit, international membership organisation. Its mission is to raise the status and training standards of vocational skills and training worldwide in an innovative and forward looking manner.

WorldSkills International operates a wide-ranging programme of activity to fulfill its mission. The core activity of the programme is the WorldSkills Competition at which it promotes world class standards in over 45 skills areas ranging from cabinetmaking to web design.

WorldSkills London 2011 will be the world's largest, international, skills competition ever, with young people from across the globe competing to be the best of the best in their chosen skill and will be held at ExCeL, London from 5-8 October 2011.

150,000 visitors will see 1,000 young competitors from over 50 countries/regions competing in 45 skill areas over four exciting days of competition.

This is our opportunity to inspire future generations of skilled, high-quality professionals.

Therefore it is our pleasure to invite you and representatives of your network to visit WorldSkills London 2011 and see for yourselves how involvement in WorldSkills competitions might benefit you.
